United Food and Commercial Workers International Union, C.L.C.
(Hereinafter referred to as the "Union")

PREAMBLE

One of the main purposes of this Agreement is to maintain in full effect a harmonious relationship between the Company, the Union and its members. No business can progress or prosper unless a mutual feeling of respect and confidence exists between the Company and the employees represented by the Union.

It is also the purpose of this Agreement to provide a satisfactory means of settling any differences or grievances that may arise and to establish rates of pay, hours of work and conditions of employment for all employees who are subject to the provisions of this Agreement.

Except where specifically stated to the contrary, or where the sense requires the contrary, use of masculine gender in this agreement shall be considered also to include the feminine.

ARTICLE 1 – Scope and Coverage

- 1:01 a) This agreement applies to all employees of Rogers Foods Ltd. (Interior Division) employed in Armstrong and Surrey, British Columbia, except managerial and supervisory personnel, professional employees, persons employed in a confidential capacity, owner operators and their drivers, sales department personnel and casual employees.
- b) This agreement shall be in full force and effect from the first (1st) day of February, 2019 until the thirty-first (31st) day of January 2024 and from year-to-year thereafter unless either party gives notice in writing to the other of termination of agreement or termination of amendment not more than one hundred and twenty (120) days and not less than thirty (30) days prior to the date of expiration.
- c) This Agreement shall become effective on the date of ratification and remain in effect from year to year unless either party gives notice in writing to the other party that amendments are required or that the party intends to terminate the Agreement.
- d) Notice that amendments are required or that either party intends to terminate the Agreement must be given in writing at least thirty (30) days but no more than one hundred and twenty (120) days prior to the expiration of the Agreement or of any annual period thereafter. During the period of negotiations this Agreement shall remain in force and effect.

- 1:02 For purpose of definition the Company and Union agree that:
- a) an “employee” is an individual working full time or part time, is a member of the bargaining unit and accrues seniority from their date of hire;
 - b) a “part time employee” is an individual who is eligible for the benefits described the Canada Labour Code. A part time employee is a member of the bargaining unit but is exempt from all other provisions of this Collective Agreement, until they:
 - i) are the successful candidate for a posted bargaining unit position, or
 - ii) have worked in excess of one thousand and forty (1040) hours;
 - c) a “probationary employee” is an individual who has not completed a probationary period of a maximum of one hundred and twenty (120) consecutive days;
 - d) a “casual” (student casual employee) is an individual registered to attend or is attending any school, college, university, institute or apprenticeship program and is hired to work on a casual basis during weekends, after school or during school vacation breaks. A casual employee is not a member of the bargaining unit and is exempt from all provisions of this Collective Agreement.
- 1:03 The Company will post temporary replacement positions to accommodate various leaves of absence such as maternity and parental leaves, extended sick leave, extended Worker’s Compensation Board of British Columbia leave, Union Business leave, or such other leave as provided by the Collective Agreement, where it is understood these absences will extend beyond three (3) months.
- 1:04 The parties agree that the discharge or layoff of a probationary employee shall be at the discretion of the Company.
- 1:05 For the purpose of definition, the Company and Union agree an owner operator means the owner, purchaser or lessee of a vehicle and their drivers or employees, under contract to the Company used for hauling merchandise or other materials for the Company.

ARTICLE 2 – Union Security

Union Recognition/Bargaining Unit Description

- 2:01 The Company will not bargain collectively during the term of this agreement with any other labour organization affecting these employees.
- 2:02 The Company acknowledges the Union alone is authorized to bargain collectively on behalf of all employees of Rogers Foods Ltd. as defined under Article 1, paragraph 1:01 of this Agreement; furthermore the ratification of this Agreement on behalf of all employees so defined shall be the sole and exclusive right of the union and its members.

Union Shop

- 2:03 The Company agrees all permanent employees who have joined or may join the Union must maintain their membership in the Union as a condition of employment.

2:04 The Company agrees that it is a condition of employment for all new employees, with the exception of those listed in Article 1, paragraph 1:01, to become members of and maintain membership in the Union upon completion of their probation, except as this agreement and the Canada Labour Code permits exemption to any employee on religious grounds. The Company will have new employees sign the Check-Off Authorization and Union Membership Application on their first working day following their date of hire, after which the Company will forward them to the Union. The Company agrees to automatically deduct Union dues from the wages of all new employees. The Company will deduct initiation fees from the employees after the successful completion of probation.

Deduction of Union Dues

2:05 Where the Union is satisfied that a permanent employee objects to joining the Union because of his religious beliefs, such employee may elect by way of deduction from his wages to:

- a) pay dues and/or special assessments to the Union, or
- b) pay an amount equal to the dues and/or special assessments to a registered charity mutually agreed on by the employee and the Union.

2:06 The Company agrees to deduct dues, initiation fees and/or special assessments from the wages of each employee covered by this Agreement and to remit the said amount to the Union in the manner outlined below except as this Agreement and the Canada Labour Code permits exemption to any employee on religious grounds.

2:07 Upon receipt of written authorization from the employee the Company agrees to deduct from the pay of each such employee:

Union Dues:

- a) The Company shall deduct from each such employee's pay on a biweekly basis union dues, fines and assessments, or sums in lieu proportionally as are authorized by regular and proper vote of the membership of the Union and will remit the total amounts so deducted to the Union on or before the fifteenth (15th) day of the following month and;
- b) Provide a written report showing the names and social insurance numbers for whom the deductions were made and the amounts deducted.
- c) The Company further agrees to provide the Union once a month with a list containing the names of all employees who have ceased being employees during the previous month.
- d) Initiation fees and/or special assessments shall be made from the employee's pay commencing on the first (1st) payday following the date of the successful completion of the employee's probation.
- e) The Union agrees to inform the Company in writing seven (7) days in advance of any change in its dues, initiation fees, and/or special assessments.

ARTICLE 3 – Union Representation

Union Stewards

3:01 The Company agrees to recognize up to six (6) stewards to deal with matters affecting employees in departments or groups of departments in the plant. A list of these stewards and officers shall be supplied to the Company. The Company shall be advised immediately by the Union in writing of any change in this list.

3:04 A copy of any document placed in an employee's official personnel file, which may at any time be the basis of disciplinary action, shall be supplied concurrently to the employee who shall acknowledge having received the same document by signing the file copy.

Bulletin Boards

3:05 The Company agrees to allow the Union to post items such as meeting notices and contract information on the six (6) Union bulletin boards. All such posted items must be signed by the Union, Chief Steward or designate. Any other material must have the approval of the Company before being posted.

Right to Union Representation

3:06 An employee has the right to have their steward present when a supervisor intends to interview an employee for disciplinary purposes. The supervisor shall make every effort to notify the employee in advance of the purpose of the interview in order that the employee may contact their steward, providing that this does not result in an undue delay of the appropriate action being taken. At this meeting the grounds for the discipline or discharge shall be provided in writing to both the employee and their steward. In subsequent disciplinary procedures, including Arbitration, this written discipline or discharge will be the focus. However, other or related written disciplines existing in the employee's personnel file may be introduced.

3:07 This clause shall not apply to those discussions that are of an operational nature.

3:08 When an employee or their steward wishes to initiate an interview to discuss a specific incident with the employee's supervisor, this shall be done by appointment at a time mutually convenient to both parties.

3:09 Where a supervisor intends to interview a shop steward for disciplinary purposes, the steward shall have the right to consult with a staff representative of the Union and to have a local Union representative present at any discussion with supervisory personnel.

Equality Rights

3:10 Both the Company and the Union endorse the principles of the Canadian Human Rights Act. As stipulated in the Act, the workplace shall be without discrimination based on race, national or ethnic origin, colour, religion, sex, sexual orientation, age, marital status, family status, disability, or a conviction for an offence for which a pardon has been granted.

Sexual and Other Harassment

3:11 Every employee is entitled to employment free of sexual harassment. The Company shall make every reasonable effort to ensure that no employee is subjected to sexual harassment in accordance with Division XV.1 of the Canada Labour Code, Part III.

3:12 The Company also believes that every employee is entitled to employment free of harassment of any nature, and shall make every reasonable effort to ensure that no employee is subjected to any form of harassment.

3:13 The Company has issued a policy statement concerning sexual harassment, which shall be available at the workplace.

3:14 The Company maintains a zero tolerance for harassment of any nature, and will take such disciplinary measures as deemed appropriate, up to and including immediate termination, against any person(s) under Rogers Foods Ltd.'s direction who subjects any employee to sexual or other harassment.

3:15 Any employee who believes that they may have been harassed during employment may bring complaints directly to the attention of the Company by contacting any manager, supervisor, the Human Resources Department or the President of the Company. The Company will not disclose the name of a complainant or the circumstances related to the complaint to any person except where disclosure is necessary for the purposes of investigating the complaint or taking disciplinary measures in relation thereto.

ARTICLE 4 – Management Rights

4:01 The union recognizes that the Company has full and sole authority to:

- a) manage the enterprise, including the determination of work to be performed, methods of performance, scheduling of work and work breaks, the control of materials, the installation of equipment and operating methods;
- b) maintain order, discipline and efficiency and to make, alter and amend policies and procedures for employees provided that such rules are consistent with the spirit, intention and terms of this Agreement and are administered in a fair and reasonable manner;
- c) hire, direct, transfer, promote, demote, lay off, suspend and discharge and to increase or decrease the working force of the Company, to reorganize, close, disband any Department or sections thereof from time to time as circumstances and necessity may require, provided that such actions are consistent with the terms of this Agreement.

Management and Bargaining Unit Work

4:02 It is the commitment of the Company not to deprive bargaining unit members of work they would normally perform. As supervisory and/or non-bargaining unit work practices may currently include work or tasks also performed by bargaining unit members, supervisors or other Company personnel may be operationally required to perform such work or associated tasks in the event of absence of other staff due to sickness or accident or in the event of emergencies, such as fire, flood, breakdown of machinery or other instances of force majeure.

ARTICLE 5 – Employee Grievance Procedure

- 5:01 The Company and Union agree that it is most desirable to resolve misunderstandings and disputes through discussions between the employee and their supervisor (supervisor includes foreman, superintendent, manager or vice president).
- 5:02 A “Grievance” shall mean any difference or dispute concerning the interpretation, application, administration or violation of the Agreement and shall be administered as set out in Article 5:03:
- 5:03 Both the Company and the Union shall encourage employees to discuss their complaints with their supervisors so as to resolve differences quickly and directly without necessarily having to resort to any formal process, as this will benefit all concerned. If this fails to resolve the difference, the formal grievance process will begin at “Step 1”.

Step 1 The grievance shall be reduced to writing and the aggrieved party shall make an appointment with his supervisor and the supervisor’s direct manager to present and discuss the grievance in the presence of the Chief Steward or his designate within fourteen (14) days of the grievance occurring. After such discussion as is necessary, the supervisor or the direct manager shall within seven (7) days give his decision in writing to the grievor and the Chief Steward.

Step 2 If the grievance is not resolved within seven (7) days from the date of the written decision of the manager in Step 1, it shall be referred to the Union’s Business Representative and the Vice President of the Company responsible for that part of the business or his designate. The parties shall meet within thirty (30) days of receipt of the written decision of the manager as referenced in Step 1 to resolve the grievance. The Vice-President shall render his decision in writing within seven (7) days after such meeting.

Step 3 If the grievance is not resolved the Union may submit the grievance to Arbitration within thirty (30) days of the written decision of the Vice-President as referenced in Step 2. The notice shall contain the name of their nominee for Arbitrator.

As an alternative to Arbitration, the parties may mutually agree in writing to pursue a third party process including the selection of the third party, herein referred to as the Troubleshooter, to reach a binding resolution of the grievance. The parties agree that the Troubleshooter process shall be an informal process that does not involve representation by legal counsel. Prior to issuing a decision, the Troubleshooter may attempt to engage the parties in mediation discussions with a view to developing a mutually agreeable settlement to the grievance. Decisions of the Troubleshooter shall be in writing, shall be without prejudice, and not set a precedent. It is understood that once the parties have agreed to pursue a grievance through an alternate third party process, the matter is subject to the agreed process and cannot be submitted to Arbitration under Articles 5 and 6 of this Agreement.

Time Limitations

5:04 Time limitations may be extended by mutual agreement in writing between the parties.

5:05 Any grievance which is not raised within the time specified in this Agreement or which is not processed through the next step of the grievance procedure or carried through to Arbitration or an alternate third party process within the time specified in the Agreement shall be deemed to have been abandoned by the party initiating the grievance.

Union or Company Grievances

5:06 Any difference between the parties arising out of the interpretation and/or application of this Agreement may be submitted by one party to the other at Step 2 of the grievance procedure.

ARTICLE 6 – Arbitration Procedure

Referral to Arbitration

6:01 Within the fourteen (14) days of receipt of notice that Arbitration is to be invoked as detailed in Step 3 both parties will attempt to come to agreement on selecting a sole Arbitrator.

6:02 In the event the parties are unable to agree on a sole Arbitrator, the Minister of Labour of the Government of Canada shall be asked to appoint the Arbitrator.

Matters Relating to Arbitration or Alternate Third Party Process

6:03 The Arbitrator or Troubleshooter shall meet as soon as possible with both parties to hear evidence and receive representations.

6:04 The sole Arbitrator or Troubleshooter shall not have the authority to alter or change any of the provisions of this Agreement or to insert any new provisions or to give any decision contrary with the terms or provisions of this Agreement.

6:05 The decision of either the sole Arbitrator or the sole Trouble Shooter shall be final and binding upon the parties hereto and upon any employee(s) concerned.

6:06 Each party shall pay its own costs and expenses in connection with either the Arbitration or other third party processes that the parties agree to. The expenses and/or fees of either the Arbitrator or other third party shall be shared on a fifty/fifty (50/50) basis between the Company and the Union.

ARTICLE 7 – No Strike or Lockout

- 7:01 During the term of this Agreement or while negotiations for a further Agreement are being held:
- a) the Union and its members will not permit or encourage any strike, slow down, stoppage of work or otherwise restrict or interfere with the Company's operation through its members, and
 - b) the Company will not engage in any lockout of its employees.

ARTICLE 8 – Seniority

 - b) Where an employee is laid-off for a period in excess of the times stated in Article 11:05.
 - c) Where an employee is discharged by the Company for just cause.
 - d) Where an employee is recalled to work after layoff and fails to report within seven (7) days when recalled by the Company after a layoff unless the Company believes the employee has a bona fide reason; notice to return to work shall be in writing and shall be deemed to be sufficient if sent by registered mail, fax, email, or courier to the employee's last known address on file with the Company.

- e) If an employee is absent from work for three (3) or more consecutive days without notifying the Company unless the employee has a bona fide reason acceptable to the Company.
- f) If a previously authorized leave of absence is extended by the employee for more than three (3) days beyond the original date of return and the employee has not communicated with the manager and/or supervisor of his department and made arrangements with him for an extension of leave unless he has a bona fide reason acceptable to the Company.

- 9:02 After being accepted for initial employment, all new employees shall be required to serve a probationary period of a minimum of one hundred and twenty (120) consecutive days.
- 9:03 The Company and Union agree that a probationary employee will become a permanent employee (see Article 1 – Scope and Coverage, paragraph 1:02) after he has successfully completed his probationary employment. If a new employee who hasn't completed their initial probationary period becomes the successful applicant for another position the original probationary period will continue.
- 9:04 Probationary employees may be terminated by the Company for any reason – without notice, wages in lieu thereof or severance pay at any time within one hundred and twenty (120) consecutive days of the start of continuous employment without any prior reference to the Union and without Article 5 – Employee Grievance Procedure of this Agreement being initiated. The clause will be subject to the Canada Labour Code, Part III, Section 230 (1).

ARTICLE 10 – Posting of Job Vacancies/Transfers

New Classifications to be Established

- 10:01 Where a new job is established, new positions are created within the bargaining unit or where existing job duties are changed such that an employee is incorrectly classified, the appropriate classification shall be negotiated unless the position(s) comes under the exclusions agreed to in Article 1 – Scope and Coverage of this Agreement and the applicable condition of this Agreement shall apply and the Union will be notified. If a wage increase results, the same shall be retroactive to the date that the job duties were changed or the new job created.
- 10:02 a) A successful applicant of a job posting shall be given a trial period of thirty (30) working days to perform the required duties.

- b) Within thirty (30) working days if the Company finds the employee is unable to perform the duties of the position within the trial period, the employee shall revert to their former classification, position and wages.
- c) The employee can elect to return to their former classification, position and wages within the first thirty (30) working days of the trial period.

Job Posting Procedure

10:06 The job posting procedure will be as follows:

- a) All vacancies, including newly created positions within the bargaining unit, which the Company determines are necessary to be filled, will be posted and held open exclusively within the Company for seven (7) working days. The Company will provide the Union with a copy of every job posting at the time of posting. The Union acknowledges that during the exclusive seven (7) working days, the Company may elect to solicit applications from outside but will not pursue any of these outside applicants until the seven (7) working days have passed.
- b) Every employee who is away on vacation, or is on such other leave as is provided by the Collective Agreement, can make a written request to the Company to be informed in writing of every job posting that arises during such absence.
- c) The Company undertakes to interview all employees who have applied in writing for a posted vacancy within the exclusive seven (7) working days.
- d) Job postings may be closed by the Company after the exclusive seven (7) working days.
- e) The selection of the candidate will be made by the Company on seniority, qualifications, experience and ability to perform the work.
- f) The Company may employ testing procedures to determine potential qualifications for entry into any department.

10:07 To attract certified, qualified and experienced people the Company reserves the right, after the successful completion of the new hire probationary period, to place these individuals on the wage scale on the following basis:

- a) Placement on the wage scale cannot exceed the level of pay of the highest paid individual in that job category.

Posting of Vacancies/Transfers

10:08 If the posting is to a higher rated classification, the employee will maintain their current rate or the minimum rate of the posting, whichever is higher, and shall move through the wage progressions to the maximum rate described in the Collective Agreement. If the posting is to a lower classification, the employee will maintain their current wage rate as long as their wage rate does not exceed the maximum rate of the posted position. The employee will only be paid the maximum rate in the new classification.

10:10 An employee who is promoted to a non-bargaining unit position shall have the ability to maintain his seniority for six (6) months from the date he leaves the bargaining unit. During the same six (6) month period of time, if the employee steps down or is demoted he shall have the ability to return to his former position, classification and wage. During his six (6) month absence, the employee shall neither earn nor lose seniority.

- 11:04 Employees referred to in Article 11:03 above to be recalled by seniority if they have sufficient qualifications and ability to fill the job requirements and were members in good standing of the Union when laid off.

An employee with three (3) or more years of service who accepts a lower level position shall have the right to eighteen (18) months of recall from the date they last worked. The employee's former job in such instances will not be posted for the time period described. The employee shall be reinstated at his former position, classification and wage.

ARTICLE 12 – Technological Change

- 12:01 The Union and the Company agree if more than ten percent (10%) of bargaining unit members are likely to be affected by a technological change that could relate to terms and conditions of security of employment, the Union and Company will meet to negotiate and agree upon provisions intended to assist employees affected by any technological change to adjust to the effects of the technological change.

12:02 The Union and the Company agree to the Technological Change language as it is written in the Canada Labour Code, Part I with the understanding of Article 12, paragraph 12:01 that more than ten percent (10%) constitutes a significant number.

ARTICLE 13 – Severance Pay & Pay in Lieu of Notice

13:01 When the Company terminates the employment of an employee who has completed one (1) complete year of continuous employment with the Company, the Company shall pay severance pay to the employee except where the termination is by way of dismissal for just cause.

13:02 Employees with greater than one (1) complete year but less than ten (10) consecutive years of continuous employment who qualify for severance pay in accordance with the provisions of the Canada Labour Code and Canada Labour Standards Regulations will be paid the equivalent of two (2) days' pay at the employee's regular rate of pay for regular hours of work for each complete year of employment, with a minimum benefit equivalent to five (5) days wages.

13:03 Employees with ten (10) consecutive years or more of continuous employment who qualify for severance pay in accordance with the provisions of the Canada Labour Code and Canada Labour Standards Regulations will be paid the equivalent of six (6) days' pay at the employee's regular rate of pay for regular hours of work for each complete year of employment, with a maximum benefit of thirty (30) weeks.

Notice or Wages In Lieu of Notice

13:04 Employee(s) terminated or laid off by the Company shall fall under the provisions of the Canada Labour Code, Part III, Division X. The Union will be notified when this has occurred.

13:05 In the event an employee covered under this Agreement is terminated or permanently laid off believes that he has been unjustly dealt with, such termination or permanent layoff may constitute a grievance and will be dealt with under Article 5 – Employee Grievance Procedure of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 14 – Job Descriptions and Classifications

14:01 Attached to this agreement is the Wage Scale and Job Classification, Appendix A which shall be an integral part of this Agreement, covering all employees except for those excluded in Article 1 – Scope and Coverage, paragraph 1:01.

ARTICLE 15 – Hours of Work, Overtime, Shift Provisions and Premiums

15:01 This Article is intended to define the regular hours of work and to provide a basis for computing overtime and premium pay. This Article is not to be construed as a guarantee or limitation of the number of hours to be worked per day or per week nor shall anything in this Agreement be so interpreted as to permit the pyramiding or duplicating of overtime or premium payments.

15:02 When an employee has worked five (5) regularly scheduled shifts in a workweek, with the exception of split shifts, he will be paid one and one-half (1 ½) times his regular rate of pay for work done on the sixth (6th) and/or seventh (7th) day within that workweek.
