ARTICLE 1 – Purpose of Agreement

- 1.01 The purpose of this Agreement is to establish and maintain harmonious relationships between Her Majesty in right of Canada as represented by the Staff of the Non-Public Funds, Canadian Forces, hereinafter referred to as the Employer, the Bargaining Agent, and the Employees and to set forth herein the terms and conditions of employment upon which agreement has been reached through collective bargaining.
- 1.02 The parties to this Agreement share a desire to improve the quality and to increase the efficiency of the services provided and to promote the well-being of the employees.

ARTICLE 2 – Recognition

- 2.01 The Employer recognizes the United Food and Commercial Workers Union, Local 1518, certified by the Public Service Staff Relations Board on 24 July 1985, as exclusive bargaining agent for all employees of the Employer in the Operational Category employed at the Canadian Forces Base at Comox in British Columbia save and except managers/category II employees.

ARTICLE 3 – Interpretation and Definitions

- 3.01 For the purpose of this Agreement:
- (a) Full-time Employee means an employee who has completed their probationary period and is employed on a continuing basis for thirty-two (32) or more hours per week.
 - (b) Probationary employee means a new employee who is carrying out the tasks of a full-time or part-time employee but has not been granted full-time or part-time status. The probationary period shall not exceed:
 - i. supervisory – three (3) calendar months;
 - ii. non-supervisory – two (2) calendar months
 - (c) Part-time employee means an employee who is employed on a continuing basis but works less than thirty-two (32) hours per week and thirteen and one third (13-1/3) hours or more per week. Continuing basis is defined as thirteen (13) consecutive weeks.
 - (d) The Employer may, with the written consent of the Union, extend the probationary period for a further period equal to the original probationary period specified above, or a lesser period in the event that the employee's evaluation is unsatisfactory upon conclusion of the original probationary period.
- 3.02 The terms of this agreement shall apply to full-time and part-time employees except where otherwise specifically stated.

ARTICLE 4 – State Security

- 4.01 Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as requiring the Employer to do or refrain from doing anything contrary to any instruction, direction or regulations given or made by or on behalf of the Government of Canada in the interest of the safety or security of Canada or any state allied or associated with Canada.

ARTICLE 5 – Managerial Rights

- 5.01 The Bargaining Agent recognizes and acknowledges that the Employer has and shall retain the exclusive right and responsibility to manage its operation in all respects including, but not limited to, the following:
- (a) to plan, direct and control operations; to determine methods, processes, equipment, and other operating matters; to determine the location of facilities and the extent to which these facilities or parts thereof shall operate; and
 - (b) to direct the working forces including the right to decide on the number of employees, to organize and assign work, to schedule shifts and maintain order and efficiency, to discipline employees including suspension and discharge for just cause; and it is expressly understood that all such rights and responsibilities not specifically covered or modified by this Agreement shall remain the exclusive rights and responsibilities of the Employer. Such rights will not be exercised in a manner inconsistent with the express provisions of this Agreement.

- 5.02 New NPF employees may be released during their probationary period for cause. The employee may have access to the grievance procedure to the second level but may not refer a grievance to adjudication.

ARTICLE 6 – Future Legislation and the Collective Agreement

- 6.01 If any law now in force or enacted during the term of this Agreement renders null and void any provision of this Agreement, the remaining provisions shall remain in effect for the term of the Agreement. The parties shall thereupon seek to negotiate substitute provisions that conform with the applicable law.

ARTICLE 7 – Check-Off

- 7.01 Subject to the provisions of this Article, the Employer will, as a condition of employment, deduct an amount equal to the bi-weekly membership dues established by the Bargaining Agent from the pay of all full-time and part-time employees in the Bargaining Unit.

When an employee does not have sufficient earnings in respect of any bi-weekly period to permit deductions, the Employer shall not be obligated to make such deductions from subsequent pay.

- 7.02 For the purpose of applying Article 7.01, deductions from pay for each employee in respect of each bi-weekly period will start with the first full bi-weekly payroll period of employment to the extent that earnings are available.
- 7.03 The Employer agrees to remit dues together with a list of employees from whom deductions have been made to the Union at reception@ufcw1518.com by the fifteenth (15th) day following the end of two consecutive payroll periods, except for circumstances beyond the Employer's control. The employee list will contain the employee's full name, employee number, job title, work location, date of hire and employment status, as well as a monthly list of employee terminations.
- 7.04 The total Union dues deducted will appear on the T4 forms.
- 7.05 The Bargaining Agent agrees to indemnify and save the Employer harmless against any claim or liability arising out of the application of this Article except for any claim or liability arising out of an error committed by the Employer limited to the amount actually involved in the error.

ARTICLE 8 – Appointment of Stewards

- 8.01 The Employer acknowledges the right of the Bargaining Agent to appoint employees as stewards and alternate stewards. The Bargaining Agent agrees to exclude employees who are serving members of the Canadian Armed Forces and subject to the National Defence Act, Code of Service Discipline, from any/all union offices. This does not preclude an employee who is a member of the reserves from serving as a shop steward while employed at an NPF unit.
- 8.02 The Bargaining Agent shall determine the jurisdiction of each steward, having regard to the plan of organization, the distribution of employees at the workplace and the administrative structure implied by the grievance procedure.
- 8.03 The Bargaining Agent shall notify the Employer promptly and in writing of the names and jurisdiction of its stewards.

ARTICLE 9 – Leave for Stewards and Access to Premises

- 9.01 A steward shall obtain the permission of their manager before leaving their work to investigate complaints that lie within the jurisdiction agreed to in Article 8, to meet with local management for the purpose of dealing with grievances and to attend meetings called by management. Where practicable, the steward shall report back to their manager before resuming their normal duties.
- 9.02 A steward will not receive pay for the time spent investigating complaints during their regular scheduled time off.
- 9.03 The Employer agrees that Business Agents of the Bargaining Agent will be granted access to the Employer's premises upon request and following the consent of the Employer. Such request shall be made twenty-four (24) hours in advance to the Employer or their delegate. The purpose of such is to be for the observation of working conditions, interviewing members and unsigned employees, and to ensure that the terms of the collective agreement are being implemented.

- 9.04 The Bargaining Agent's meetings shall be held outside the hours of work of the employees and outside the premises of the Employer. However, the Employer may permit the Bargaining Agent to use the Employer's premises outside the hours of work of the employees for conducting its meetings, where refusal to grant permission would make it difficult for the Bargaining Agent to convene a meeting. The Bargaining Agent shall ensure the orderly and proper conduct of its members who attend such meetings on the Employer's premises and agrees to be responsible for leaving facilities in good order after use.
- 9.05 The Employer agrees that employees chosen to attend union business in connection with committee, conferences, seminars, or union negotiations shall be given leave without pay to attend so long as such leave does not interfere with the proper operation of the business.
- 9.06 When an employee is on an approved leave without pay for Union business, their pay shall continue as normal and any time spent on Union business without pay, where authorized by the Union shall be billed to the Union.

ARTICLE 10 – Health & Safety

- 10.01 The Employer agrees to maintain reasonable provisions for the safety of its employees during the hours of employment and to provide an Accident Prevention Program. The Employer and the Bargaining Agent recognize that the environment standards are those issued under Part II of the Canada Labour Code and as interpreted by the Local Occupational Health and Safety Committee.
- 10.02 It is the responsibility of the employee to observe the safety rules, to wear and use safety equipment according to instructions and to immediately advise their supervisor of any unsafe working conditions.
- 10.03 The Employer agrees to maintain adequate temperatures as required by the appropriate legislation in all its indoor places of operation and shall not require an employee to work under unsafe conditions.
- 10.04 An annual allowance of two hundred dollars ($200.00) shall be provided to those employees who are required to wear CSA approved safety footwear under the provisions of Part II of the Canada Labour Code. This allowance shall be payable once per year on presentation of proof of purchase.
- In the case where the employee has not used their annual allowance of two hundred dollars ($200.00), the allowance can only be carried over to the following year to a maximum of four hundred dollars ($400.00).
- 10.05 The Canada Labour Code, Part II, establishes the process for the Employer to prevent workplace harassment and violence from happening, responding to situations in which harassment or violence have occurred and importantly, supporting victims of harassment and violence.

10.06 Harassment and Violence means any action, conduct or comment, including of a sexual nature, that can reasonably be expected to cause offence, humiliation or other physical or psychological injury or illness to an employee, including any prescribed action, comment, or conduct. (the Canada Labour Code, Part II, subsection 122(1)). The Employer's policy on Workplace Harassment and Violence Prevention outlines the process to respond to any related occurrences.

ARTICLE 11– Hours of Work

11.01 The normal hours of work shall not exceed eight (8) hours in a day and forty (40) hours in a week, exclusive of unpaid meal periods. A week shall include a period of seven (7) consecutive days starting at 0001 hours Monday morning and ending at 2400 hours the following Sunday night.

11.02 Once in every three (3) week period, full-time employees shall be scheduled two (2) consecutive days off, which shall be either a Friday and Saturday, Saturday and a Sunday, or a Sunday and a Monday combination, this is a minimum standard and not a maximum. Where such changes are necessary, the employee will be given notice as far in advance as possible.

(b) With the exception of unforeseen circumstances, employees who wish to take time off should submit such requests for leave as far in advance as possible and in any event, must do so no later than the Wednesday morning prior to the schedule being posted. With the exception of emergencies, an employee who wishes to take time off but who has not submitted a leave request prior to the Wednesday will be responsible for finding an employee to replace them.

(c) Employees who wish to change their shift with another qualified employee must first submit such request in writing to their supervisor. Should the request be granted, the Employer shall not be liable for any claims of non-compliance with the Collective Agreement resulting from the shift change. The Employer shall not unreasonably deny any such request.

11.04 Meal periods shall be as follows:

(a) Employees working six (6) consecutive hours or more are entitled to an uninterrupted meal period without pay of not less than thirty (30) minutes, and no more than sixty (60) minutes. The meal period shall be scheduled as close to the mid-point of the work period as possible.

- (b) The meal period in operations that employ only one (1) person shall remain as per past practice unless changes are mutually agreed upon.

11.07 There shall be a minimum of ten (10) hours from the time the employee concludes one scheduled work shift and commences the next scheduled work shift, unless otherwise mutually agreed upon.

11.08 Each employee shall be granted a rest period of fifteen (15) minutes during each period of work of three and one-half (3.5) hours, except in those operations which normally employ one person the rest period shall remain as per past practice unless changes are mutually agreed upon. Rest periods shall not be allocated within one (1) hour of starting or quitting time.

For greater clarity, past practice means, that at the Employer's discretion, an employee may:

- 2. be paid for the rest period at the applicable rate of pay; or
- 3. be granted equivalent compensatory time off at the employee's regular rate of pay

11.09 Senior employees shall not be scheduled to work less hours than junior employees in the same job title in the same outlet during any week, provided they are available and able to work the hours required.

- 11.10 Employees shall not be scheduled for shifts of less than three (3) hours duration.
- 11.11 In the event employees wish to exchange a shift with another qualified employee, they shall first submit such request in writing to the Supervisor. Should the request be granted, the Employer shall not be liable for any claims of non-compliance with the Collective Agreement resulting from the shift change.
- 11.12 Employees in the Bargaining Unit who request additional hours shall be offered any available additional hours within their job titles in their outlet based on job seniority, provided that they have the experience, ability, and skill to do the job required, and provided the additional hours do not result in overtime and do not result in the change of status of an employee. Hours scheduled for regular NPF functions are considered as available additional hours. Available additional hours are those hours resulting from vacation, leave of absence, sickness, or accident. This provision in no way shall restrict the right of the Employer to decide the makeup of the workforce.
- 11.13 Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as guaranteeing an employee minimum or maximum hours of work.
- 11.14 Employees who are required by the Employer to pick up and return outlet keys shall be paid for such time.
- 11.15 An employee called in and who reports to work shall receive a minimum of three (3) hours pay at their applicable rate of pay.

- 12.01 When an employee is required to work in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a week they shall be paid for the overtime at a rate of pay not less than one and one-half (1-1/2) times their regular hourly rate of pay.
- 12.02 Overtime shall be compensated in money, except where at the request of an employee, and with the approval of the Employer, overtime may be compensated in equivalent leave with pay within 90 days of the overtime worked. After the 90 day period has expired, the overtime will be paid out to the employee without further notice, with the exception of Golf Course employees.

If no employee wishes to work the overtime, the Employer shall assign the work to a junior employee who is capable of performing the work.
- 12.04 When an employee is required to work on the seventh (7th) and subsequent consecutive days, they shall be paid two (2) times the applicable rate of pay for all hours worked on that day. This Article will not apply in the event employees switch shifts in accordance with Article 11.11.

- (h) they are a probationary employee and are rejected on probation.

Lay-Off and Recall From Lay-Off

- 13.04 Lay-off and recall from lay-off shall be on the basis of seniority by outlet with employees being selected in accordance with their seniority within the outlet, and with senior employees have preference over junior employees provided the senior employee has the experience, ability, and skill to do the job required. For the purposes of applying this sub-article, the following order of precedence applies:

If they accept the part-time work they shall receive the rate of pay of the job in which they are placed. A full-time employee who accepts part-time work shall be retained on the lay-off list and shall be eligible for recall to a full-time position for a period of twelve (12) months in accordance with the provisions of this Article.
- (b) A full-time employee who is given part-time status in accordance with Article 13.05 (a) will retain seniority as a full-time employee for twelve (12) months. Vacancies

- 13.07 (a) Vacancies within the bargaining unit created by the resignation or retirement of an employee or the creation of a new position will be filled first, on the basis of seniority, by recalling employees on the lay-off list of the outlet concerned provided they are of the same job title or higher than the classification level of the vacant position and provided they have the necessary experience, ability, and skill to do the job required.
- (b) For the purposes of applying this sub-article, the following order of precedence applies:
 - i. Full-time employees in the outlet;

The poster shall indicate the job title and job description, rate of pay, the approximate starting date and qualifications required;
- (b) qualified and interested employees will be considered in the following order of priority:
 - (1) applicants within the outlet who are of the same job title;
 - (2) applicants within the outlet who are of other job titles;
 - (3) applicants within the Bargaining Unit outside the outlet concerned; and
 - (4) applicants outside the Bargaining Unit.

Assessment

13.09 Employees selected to fill a vacancy shall be appointed for an initial assessment period. The duration of the assessment period shall not exceed three (3) months. If, during the assessment period, the Employer determines that the employee has not performed the duties and responsibilities to the satisfaction of the Employer, or if the selection was made in accordance with Article 13.07 (b) and if during the first thirty (30) days of the assessment the employee decides that they do not wish to remain in the position, the employee will be removed from the job and will be reassigned to their former position or to a position equivalent to their former position without loss of seniority.

Grievances

13.10 Only an employee who applied for a competition and was not selected may submit a grievance regarding the competition. The grievance must be submitted within the five (5) working days following the day on which the candidates were advised of the name of the successful candidate.

Preference

13.11 A full-time employee shall have preference over a part-time employee in matters of lay-off, recall from lay-off and promotion provided the full-time employee has the experience, skill, and ability to do the job to the satisfaction of the Employer.

Qualifications

13.12 In this Article, the Employer is to be the sole judge of experience, skill, and ability but agrees that such decisions will not be made in an arbitrary or discriminatory manner. When these considerations are judged equal, the employee with the greatest seniority will be selected.

Seniority Lists

13.13 Within sixty (60) days of the signing of this collective agreement separate seniority lists for full-time and part-time employees shall be posted for a period of three (3) weeks. The seniority date for each employee shall be considered correct if no objection is made within three (3) weeks of the first day of posting of the initial list on which the employee's name appears. Copies of these seniority lists will be provided to the Bargaining Agent. Seniority lists will be provided to the Union Representative twice yearly.

- 14.08 No full-time employee is entitled to be paid for a designated holiday when they are not entitled to pay for at least ten (10) days during the thirty (30) calendar days immediately preceding the designated holiday.
- 14.09 Part-time employees shall be paid 4.25% of gross regular earnings as designated holiday pay every pay period. If a part-time employee works on a designated holiday, the employee will be paid at a rate of one and one half (1.5) times their rate of pay for the hours worked on that day.
- 14.10 Subject to operational requirements the Employer shall not require an employee to work two (2) consecutive designated holidays as listed in Article 14.01. Notwithstanding the preceding, this condition does not preclude the employee from requesting to work two (2) consecutive designated holidays should the schedule allow.

ARTICLE 15 – Vacation Leave

- 15.01 Full-time employees are entitled to and shall be granted a paid vacation at the regular hourly rate of pay for the period involved. The vacation entitlement shall be earned as follows:

Continuous Full-Time Employment	Entitlement
In the 1st year of continuous full-time employment	10 working days
In the 2nd to 6th years of continuous full-time employment	15 working days
In the 7th to 15th years of continuous full-time employment	20 working days
In the 16th to 17th years of continuous full-time employment	23 working days
In the 18th to 26th years of continuous full-time employment	25 working days
In the 27th year of continuous full-time employment	27 working days

In the 28th and subsequent years of continuous full-time employment..... 30 working days

A full-time employee shall be entitled to apply for vacation leave on the basis of earned pro-rated vacation credits.

- 15.02 Calculations for vacation entitlement shall be based on the anniversary date of employment of the employee.
- 15.03 Vacation is only earned while an employee is drawing a wage except that authorized periods of leave without pay that do not exceed two weeks may be counted as time earning vacation.
- 15.04 Subject to operational requirements the Employer shall make every reasonable effort to schedule an employee's vacation at a time acceptable to them.
- 15.05 An employee shall give the Employer at least one (1) month's notice in writing regarding the actual dates on which they desire to take a vacation of five (5) or more working days. Leave for shorter periods may be granted provided sufficient notice is given.
- 15.06 The normal vacation period shall commence on May 31 and end on September 30. This in no way precludes employees from requesting vacation leave outside the normal vacation period. If the Employer determines that the requested vacation will not interfere with the proper operation of the outlet, the request will be approved.
- 15.07 The vacation schedule shall be posted prior to the vacation period as specified in Article 15.06 and such vacations will be granted on the basis of seniority by outlet. A senior employee will not be able to request a vacation period already selected by an employee whose vacation request was approved by the Employer.
- 15.08 When holidays as defined in Article 14.01 fall within the employee's paid vacation period, the employee will be permitted to either take the equivalent extra days of vacation with pay consecutive with their vacation or take the equivalent days of vacation at a time mutually agreed upon.
- 15.09 Subject to operational requirements, the Employer may schedule the Saturday/Sunday prior to the commencement of an employee's vacation period as the employee's Saturday/Sunday off in that three (3) week period.
- 15.10 Vacation leave shall not be cumulative from year to year under normal circumstances. It is realized that occasionally vacations cannot be taken during the vacation period because of illness, job requirements or other exceptional circumstances. In such cases vacations may be carried over to the next vacation period with the approval of the Employer or their delegate. Applications for vacation carry-over shall be submitted in writing. If an employee carries over their vacation entitlement from one (1) year to the next year, they must use up all of their entitlement in the second (2nd) year.
- 15.11 If a full-time employee becomes sick while on vacation leave and submits a doctor's certificate covering the period of sickness, they shall have the vacation for the period covered by the certificate converted to sick leave. The days of vacation lost as a result of the sickness shall be re-credited to their vacation record.

15.12 An employee converting from part-time to full-time status may count all of their previous continuous part-time employment towards full-time vacation entitlement.

15.13 On termination of employment or change of status from full-time to part-time the employee is entitled to any vacation pay owed to them in respect to any prior completed year of employment and vacation pay for any portion of the year completed at the time of termination at their current hourly rate of pay.

15.14 Part-time employees will be paid vacation pay as follows:

In the 1st year of employment	four (4) % of annual gross earnings
In the 2nd to 6th years of employment	six (6) % of annual gross earnings
In the 7th to 15th years of employment	eight (8) % of annual gross earnings
In the 16th to 17th years of employment	nine (9) % of gross earnings
In the 18th to 26th years of employment	ten (10) % of annual gross earnings
In the 27th year of employment	eleven (11) % of gross earnings
In the 28th and subsequent years of employment	twelve (12) % of gross earnings

15.15 Subject to operational requirements, the Employer shall make every reasonable effort to schedule a part-time employee's unpaid vacation at a time acceptable to them, if requested in writing. The unpaid vacation shall be commensurate with the entitlement in Article 15.14 (i.e., 4% = 2 weeks; 6% = 3 weeks, etc.).

15.16 Upon hire and in any case, only once in the employee's entire period of employment within the bargaining unit, a part-time employee may choose to receive their vacation pay either with every paycheque or in one (1) lump sum payment, deposited on the last pay period of the calendar year.

 - (iv) Sick leave is not cumulative from year to year, nor does it have any cash value.
- (d) The full-time employee's entitlement is reinstated under the following conditions:

 - (ii) If the sick leave is seventeen (17) weeks in duration, the employee will have their full sick leave benefits reinstated after they have returned from sick leave or long-term disability (LTD) to regular full-time employment for seventeen (17) consecutive weeks for the same illness/injury or seven (7) consecutive calendar days for a new illness/injury.

- 16.05 An employee returning from leave provided pursuant to Article 16.02 shall be reinstated to the position occupied at the time the leave commenced. Should the employee's position be eliminated, then and only then will the parties look to a similar scenario, with not less than the same wages and benefits. If, during the period of leave, the wages and benefits of the group to which the employee belongs are changed as a result of a reorganization, and/or a renewal of the collective agreement, the employee is entitled, upon return from leave, to receive the same pay and benefits that the employee would have received had they been working when the reorganization and/or renewal of the collective agreement took place. An employee on leave will be notified in writing if such a change took place.

- 16.07 The employee shall, along with the request for Maternity, Parental Leave or Adoption Leave, notify the Employer in writing of the options concerning the pension and group insurance benefits. If an employee elects to continue their pension and/or group benefits, the Employer shall continue to pay its share of contributions.
- 16.08 The employee is required to give the Employer at least four (4) weeks written notice of their desire to return to work from Maternity and/or Parental Leave. If the employee fails to give said notice or fails to return to work on the expiry date of the Maternity, Parental and/or Adoption Leave, the employee shall be considered to have voluntarily terminated their employment.

Maternity Leave Allowance

- 16.09 (a) An employee leaving on maternity leave shall be granted a two (2) week allowance equal to ninety-three percent (93%) of their gross pay as averaged over the previous two (2) pay periods, and for the remaining fifteen (15) weeks of maternity leave shall be granted a top-up allowance equal to the difference between the benefits the employee would receive from Employment Insurance and ninety-three percent (93%) of their gross pay as averaged over the previous two (2) pay periods, in accordance with the following conditions:
- (i) After completion of six (6) months continuous employment, an employee who provides the Employer with proof that they have applied for and are eligible to receive Employment Insurance benefits pursuant to Section 22 of the Employment Insurance Act, as may be amended from time to time, shall be paid an allowance in accordance with the Supplementary Employment Benefit Plan;
 - (ii) An employee who receives the allowance shall return to work for a period equal to the amount of maternity leave taken on the date of expiry of maternity leave unless the date is modified with the Employer's consent or unless the employee is then entitled to another leave provided for in this Agreement; and

Jury Duty

16.11 In the event a full-time or part-time employee is summoned for jury duty, the Employer agrees to make up the difference, if any, between the jury duty pay and the employee's weekly pay. The employee will notify their manager promptly when they are called. Employees shall return to work within a reasonable period of time. They shall not be required to report if less than two (2) hours of their normal shift remains to be worked.

This does not apply if the employee is excused as a witness for the rest of the day or days and fails to report back to work, or if witness duty occurs on the employee's regular scheduled day off. The employee must provide this documentation only if it is reasonably possible for them to obtain it and provide it.

The Employer agrees that an employee will not be subject to adverse action if their attendance or job performance is affected because they are experiencing domestic violence.

At the request of the employee, the Employer undertakes, in collaboration with the employee, to develop a plan to ensure their safety in the workplace.

ARTICLE 17 – Grievance Procedures

- 17.01 The purpose of any grievance procedure is to maintain good relations between employees and management at all levels. The grievance procedure helps to do this by providing a method of resolving complaints quickly and fairly.
- 17.02 The grievance procedure provides an informal or oral complaint state for employees. Managers are available for private consultations with an employee who wishes to discuss a complaint or grievance. Before a formal grievance is presented, the employee is encouraged to discuss it as an oral complaint with the manager concerned, either privately or, if required, in the presence of a steward of the bargaining agent. If the employee is not satisfied with the result of such discussions, a formal grievance may then be presented.
- 17.03 A three-level grievance procedure is provided to employees. The Employer will post the names of the officers designated by the employer to respond to each of the three levels of the grievance procedure. The Bargaining Agent will be given a list of the names.
- 17.04 Subject to and as provided in Part 2 of the Federal Public Sector Labour Relations Act, as amended from time to time, an employee who feels that they have been treated unjustly or considers themselves aggrieved by any action or lack of action by the Employer in matters other than those arising from the classification process is entitled to present a grievance in the manner prescribed in Article 17.09 except that,
- (a) where there is another administrative procedure provided by or under any Act of Parliament to deal with this specific complaint, such procedure must be followed, and
 - (b) where the grievance relates to the interpretation or application of this Collective Agreement or an Arbitral Award, they are not entitled to present the grievance unless they have the approval of and is represented by the Bargaining Agent.
- 17.05 An employee is not entitled to present a grievance relating to any action taken, direction or regulation given or made on behalf of the Government of Canada, respecting matters involving the safety or security of Canada.

- 17.06 An employee, when submitting a grievance at any level, shall use the NPF Grievance Presentation Form. However, a grievance shall not be deemed to be invalid by reason only of the fact that it is not in accordance with the NPF form or by reason of any technical irregularity. The form is obtainable from the NPF Human Resources Office.
- 17.07 The grievance process applies to employees only, but an employee has the right to be represented by a steward in the grievance procedure at any level and at either, or both, the informal discussion (oral complaint) stage, or when the formal written grievance is being considered.
- 17.08 At the request of an employee who has presented a grievance, a steward shall have the right to consult with the person designated to reply on management's behalf at any level in the grievance procedure. At levels other than the final level the request for consultation may be made orally.
- 17.09 An employee wishing to present a grievance shall do so:
- (a) at the first level of the grievance procedure where the grievance does not relate to disciplinary action resulting in the discharge of the employee; and
 - (b) at the final level of the grievance procedure where the grievance relates to disciplinary action resulting in the discharge of the employee.
- All levels in the grievance procedure, except the final level, may be by-passed by the mutual consent of the Employer or their delegate, the employee and, where applicable, a steward.
- 17.10 A grievance shall be presented by an employee:
- (a) where it does not relate to disciplinary action resulting in discharge, not later than the twentieth (20th) day; and
 - (b) where it relates to disciplinary action resulting in discharge, not later than the twenty-fifth (25th) day after the day on which the employee is notified orally or in writing, or where the employee is not so notified, after the day on which the employee became aware of the action or circumstances giving rise to the grievance.
- 17.11 When an employee is not willing to accept the response to a grievance, submitted to the first or second level, and wishes to submit the grievance to the final level, this must be done within ten (10) days after the date on which the response was conveyed to the employee, in writing, by the Employer.
- 17.12 When an employee does not receive a response to the grievance within fifteen (15) days, the employee is entitled to submit the grievance to the next higher level.
- 17.13 The Employer shall normally reply to an employee's grievance at the first or second level of the grievance process within fifteen (15) days after the grievance is presented, and within twenty-five (25) days where the grievance is presented at the final level.

- 17.14 The time limits stipulated in the grievance procedure may be extended by mutual agreement between the Employer, the grievor and, where applicable, a steward.
- 17.15 In determining the time within which any action is to be taken in the grievance procedure, Saturdays, Sundays, and designated holidays shall be excluded.
- 17.16 An employee may abandon a grievance at any stage in the process by written notice to the officer who is designated to receive and to reply on behalf of the Employer at Level One (1) of the grievance process.
- 17.17 An employee who fails to present a grievance to the next higher level within the prescribed time limits shall be deemed to have abandoned the grievance, unless in the opinion of the Employer or their delegate, it was not possible for the employee to comply with the prescribed time limits.
- 17.18 When an employee has presented a grievance up to and including the final level with respect to disciplinary action resulting in discharge, suspension or a financial penalty, and the grievance has not been dealt with to the employee's satisfaction, they may refer the grievance to adjudication in accordance with the provisions of the Federal Public Sector Labour Relations Act and Regulations.
- 17.19 When a grievance that may be presented by an employee to adjudication is a grievance relating to the interpretation or application in respect of themselves or a provision of a Collective Agreement or an Arbitral Award, the employee is not entitled to refer the grievance to adjudication unless the Bargaining Agent for the Bargaining Unit to which the Collective Agreement or Arbitral Award applies signifies in a prescribed manner:
- (a) its approval of the reference of the grievance to adjudication; and
 - (b) its willingness to represent the employee in the adjudication proceedings.

ARTICLE 18 – Pay Administration

- 18.01 Employees shall be paid for services rendered at the hourly rate of pay specified in Appendix A in accordance with their length of service and job category. No rate shall be below the higher of the B.C. minimum wage or the Federal minimum wage, whichever is the greater.
- (a) Employees accepting a position within the bargaining unit who have previous continuous service with the Employer will be placed at the increment of the wage grid commensurate with their length of service with the Employer;

ANNEX B

RE: Pay Notes

- (a) Subject to ratification by the Union and the Employer, effective 1 November, the pay grid shall be put into effect. Employees actively on strength as of the date of ratification (including those on layoff or on an authorized leave of absence) will be placed on the new pay grid based on their length of service within their pay band (i.e., employees currently at the 12-month rate will be placed at the 12- month rate) and their anniversary date for future incremental increases will remain the same as it was prior to the implementation of the new grid.
- (b) Effective 1 November 2021 and subject to the above ratification, the pay grid at Annex A shall be put into effect.
- (c) Effective 1 November 2022 and subject to the above ratification, the pay grid at Annex A will be put into effect.
- (d) Effective 1 November 2023 and subject to the above ratification, the pay grid at Annex A shall be put into effect.

Minimum Wage Adjustment

- (e) In the event that the provincial minimum wage increases during the life of this Agreement, the following shall apply:
 - (1) If the minimum wage increases on the same date a negotiated grid comes into effect, that grid will remain the grid in effect on that date, however rates of pay will be set at the higher rate between the negotiated rate and the rate determined by the minimum wage adjustment grid formula below.
 - (2) If the minimum wage increases on a date that is not aligned to the implementation of a negotiated grid, the next negotiated grid will be put into effect on the day that the minimum wage increases. However, the rates of pay will be set at the higher rate between the negotiated rate and the rate determined by the minimum wage adjustment grid formula below.
 - (3) If the minimum wage increases after the last grid of the Agreement has been implemented, the rates of pay will be initially set at the higher between the current rates of pay and the rates determined by the minimum wage adjustment grid below. In that event, the next negotiated grid, once ratified, will be put into effect on the day that the minimum wage increased. However, only employees actively on strength on the day the new agreement is ratified will be entitled to the retroactive wage adjustment.

This adjustment will not be made retroactively.

- (f) Any employee whose rate of pay is above the top step increment of the pay level for their job will not have their pay reduced but will retain their current rate of pay until the top step increment of the pay level for their job exceeds their rate of pay; at this point, the rate of pay for those employees will increase to the rate of pay in the pay level for their job that is closest to but not less than their current rate of pay.
- (g) New employees will normally be hired at the start rate of their pay band. However, in exceptional circumstances and in consultation with the Bargaining Agent, the Employer can hire employees at a rate of pay that is above the start rate. When a new employee is hired, their anniversary date for future incremental increases will be based on their placement in the wage grid at the time of hire (i.e. an employee hired at the 12 month rate will be placed at the 24 month rate following one year from their date of hire).
- (h) Unless otherwise expressly stipulated, the provisions of this Collective Agreement shall become effective on the date it is ratified by the Union and the Employer.
- (i) The Agreement will expire on 31 October 2024.

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING #2

Re: Closure of Outlets

The Employer, 19 Wing Comox, has no plans to militarize, concession, sub-contract or close any NPF outlets or NPF positions.

Should this become necessary during the term of this agreement and such changes result in the displacement of employees, the Employer agrees to meet with the Union to discuss the possibilities of alternate employment. When the Employer becomes aware of changes as set out above, the Employer will notify the Union and the Union and the Employer will meet to commence discussions.

This letter of understanding will not form part of the collective agreement.

It is understood that the Employer will make every effort to notify the Union as far in advance as possible regarding a potential outlet closure. Furthermore, the Employer shall attempt to find alternate positions for any employees displaced by an outlet closure, providing the employee has the requisite experience, skills, and abilities that such available position requires.

Re: Casuals

Employees in the bargaining unit who request additional hours shall be offered any available additional hours within their job titles, in their outlet based on their seniority, provided that they have the experience, ability, and skill to do the job required, and provided the additional hours do not result in overtime and do not conflict with existing schedules and the existing hours do not result in the change of status of an employee."

The underlying purpose of this is to eliminate the employment of casual employees and to regulate the assignment of the hours so displaced to bargaining unit employees. An additional purpose is to regulate the assignment of hours due to planned absences of employees (i.e. vacation, leave without pay, maternity leave, sickness, injury and long-term disability).

The term "available additional hours" means hours currently scheduled to be worked on a regular and recurring basis by casual employees, or hours that become available due to scheduled absences of bargaining unit employees.

In order to implement this, the Employer will post a notice for a period of seven (7) calendar days once every six (6) months, advising all bargaining unit employees of the following:

- (a) The daily blocks of hours currently worked by casual employees that will become available to bargaining unit employees;
- (b) That the hours may be claimed, in order of seniority, with full-time employees taking precedence over part-time employees;
- (c) That the hours claimed must be in the same outlet in which the employee currently works and of the same job title;
- (d) That the hours claimed to not result in overtime;
- (e) That the additional hours do not result in a change in status from part-time to full-time;
- (f) That a full-time employee comply with Article 11.07 should a split shift result from claiming the additional hours; and
- (g) That any other provision of the collective agreement he complied with.

Employees will also be informed that they must indicate, in writing, that they wish to be offered available additional hours due to scheduled absences of employees. The conditions for offering the hours will be in accordance with sub-paragraphs (b), (c), (d), (e), (f); and (g) above.

The Union Representative and the Human Resources Manager will meet every six (6) months and review the above.

During Collective Agreement negotiations, the Employer and the Union agreed that the use of casual employees within the NPF bargaining unit in Comox shall be monitored on an ongoing basis. The Employer shall share the information in regards to casuals with the Union at the EMRC meetings with a view to minimizing their usage wherever possible.

This letter of understanding will not form part of the collective agreement.

The parties agree to the following:

- 1) With the approval of the managers of the applicable outlets and subject to the conditions of the Letter of Understanding, interested and qualified employees within the Bargaining Unit can engage in multiple employment by working additional hours in a specialty position different from their substantive position.
- 2) The parties agree that the purpose of this agreement is to allow employees the ability to work additional hours for the Employer without affecting their status, benefits or entitlements. The following are the terms and conditions relating to multiple employment:
 - a. The employee's status shall remain that of the employee's substantive (primary position) and the hours worked in the second position will not be included in the determination of the employee's status.
 - b. The employee will have no seniority in the second position, nor will the time worked in the second position be used to calculate the employee's seniority within the Bargaining Unit or the applicable outlet(s).
 - c. There must not be a conflict between the work schedules of the employee's substantive position and the employee's second position.
 - d. While working in the substantive position, the employee shall be paid the rate of pay relating to their substantive position. While working in the second position, the employee shall be paid the rate of pay associated with the second position.
 - e. The compensation received while working in the second job will be subject to Union dues, as applicable. However, the hours and compensation from the second job will be excluded from the calculation of the employee's pensionable earnings or pensionable service, the determination of the employee's insured benefits (for e.g. Group Life Insurance or LTD coverage), and the determination of the employee's other benefits or entitlements (including but not limited to Worker's Compensation benefits, designated holiday pay, calculation of paid leave or the accrual of vacation pay). Further, the hours worked in the second position will not be considered overtime hours and will be excluded from the calculation of the employee's weekly hours of work/normal hours of work and in the determination of the employee's entitlement to overtime pay.
The employee is not entitled to take paid leave from the second position.
 - f. The employee may not receive two types of pay for the same hours of work (for e.g. the employee cannot receive paid time off from their primary position for hours worked in the employee's second position). Further, the employee may not perform work in the second position while on sick leave (whether paid or unpaid) from the primary position.
 - g. In the event the employee is subject to any disciplinary action resulting from misconduct while in either position, subject to the provisions of Article 17 of the Collective Agreement, such measures will apply to both the employee's substantive and second position and will be taken into consideration when determining any future disciplinary action relating to either the employee's substantive or second position. Further, in the event that the employee is discharged from employment, whether or not the reasons for discharge were attributable to any fault of the employee, such discharge will apply to both the employee's substantive and second position.

This program will be revisited at the end of an eighteen (18) month term in order to evaluate the effectiveness and relevance. The membership shall be provided with the opportunity to vote on whether this program remains in effect for subsequent terms.

This Letter of Understanding shall not form part of the Collective Agreement which expires on 31 October 2020.

Renewed this 23rd day of December, 2021.
