The Employer shall be free to hire new employees who are not members of the Union, PROVIDED said nonmembers, whether part- or full-time employees, shall be eligible for membership in the Union and shall make application within ten (10) days after employment and become members within thirty (30) days. And further provided that when a new employee, whether full- or part-time, has worked for the Employer for ten (10) working days, the Employer shall deduct Union dues and other charges from the wages of the employee in accordance with the provisions of Section 3.
- (b) The Employer agrees to provide each new employee at the time of employment with a form letter outlining to the employee their responsibility in regard to Union membership and outlining the provisions of Section 5(e) of this Agreement, and to provide the Union in writing with the name and address of each employee to whom they have presented the form letter, along with the employee's date of hire. The Union shall bear the expense of printing the letter, the contents of the letter to be such that it is acceptable to the Employer. Union dues deducted by the Employer shall be shown on the employee's T4 slip.

SECTION 4 – Basic Work Week – Overtime – Statutory

Holidays

The Employer reserves the right to schedule hours of store operations, subject to the following provisions in respect to employee hours of work, rest periods, lunch periods, overtime and statutory holidays:

- (b) The Basic Straight Time Workday shall consist of eight (8) hours to be worked within nine (9) consecutive hours wherever possible, with one (1) uninterrupted hour off for a meal period at approximately the middle of the workday.
- (c) Overtime Pay shall be paid at the rate of one-and-one-half (1½) times the employee's regular rate of pay for all time worked beyond the basic limits set out in Subsections (a) and (b), except for work performed on a Sunday or statutory holiday where the Subsections governing these days apply. Compensating time off shall not be given in lieu of payment for overtime worked unless mutually agreed.

A part-time employee who works less than the basic work week and restricts their availability shall sign a form so advising the Employer. Such employee shall forfeit their right to claim any hours in excess of the number of hours to which they have restricted themselves. If an employee wishes to end their restricted status, they must advise the Employer in writing. The employee's full seniority rights will be reinstated from the date he or she advises the Employer. An employee shall not be entitled to restrict him or herself more than two (2) times per year. Hourly restrictions shall be indicated on the posted schedule.

For purposes of the Collective Agreement, Sunday is considered the first (1st) day of the basic work week and in the event an employee worked in excess of the basic work week, as set out in Subsection (a), the last such day or days worked in such weeks shall be considered as the day or days for which overtime applies.

- (1) Work on Sunday shall be voluntary.
- (2) Sunday work shall be considered as "available hours" and shall be offered according to seniority.
- (3) Employees shall notify management at the beginning of each two (2) month period of their availability to work on Sundays.

- (4) If sufficient employees are not available to work on Sundays, the Employer shall have the right to schedule hours according to "reverse seniority", provided the employee has the ability to perform the work required.

For purposes of determining statutory holiday pay entitlement for full-time employees, all paid time off and hours absent due to sickness or accident shall be counted as hours worked if the full-time employee would have been scheduled to work such hours they were absent.

When an employee is required to work on a statutory holiday they will be paid at one and one half (1½) times their regular rate of pay provided they worked twenty (20) hours in the previous week.

SECTION 14 – Retail Clerks Industry Pension Plan

Effective January 1, 1999, the Employer agrees to contribute an amount equal to six percent (6%) of all earnings, less taxable benefits, on behalf of each employee covered by this agreement. Effective January 1, 2000, this contribution shall increase to seven percent (7%); on January 1, 2001, this will increase to eight percent (8%).

After January 1, 1999, the employee shall also make a contribution, by way of payroll deduction, as follows:

Up to 30 years of age	0%
30 - 39 years of age ...	1%
40 - 49 years of age ...	2%
50 years of age and older	4%

Changes in contribution rates shall be effective from the first day of the pay period following the attainment of age 30, 40 and 50 respectively. "Pay period" means the biweekly period from Sunday through Saturday used by the Employer for payment of earnings.

The Employer and the Union agree to the original method of selection of Employer and Union Trustees to administer the plan. It is agreed that the terms of the plan and its administration shall be entirely the responsibility of these original Trustees or their valid replacements, provided that the plan is administered consistently with this Collective Agreement, subject to any applicable government law or regulation and with the intention of meeting all of the requirements for continued registration under the Income Tax Act of Canada. Subject to the foregoing, the Employer and the Union agree to be bound by the actions taken by the Employer and Union Trustees under the plan.

SECTION 15 – Recognition of Stewards

The Employer agrees to recognize Union Stewards elected or appointed by the Union from employees of the Bargaining Unit upon being notified in writing by the Union of the election or appointment. Shop Stewards will be allowed to wear Shop Steward badges while on duty.

Shop Stewards will be allowed to orient new employees to the Union on shift, after receiving permission from the General Manager, or their designate. Such time will not exceed fifteen (15) minutes, shall not result in overtime, and shall not unduly interfere with the employee's regular duties. The General Manager, or their designate, will inform the Shop Steward of all new employees covered by the Collective Agreement. If more than one new employee is hired in a week, the orientation will be at the same time, where reasonably possible.

When a Shop Steward is investigating a grievance or a complaint on company time, the Steward must first obtain permission from their immediate Supervisor or the General Manager. Such permission will not be unreasonably withheld.

SECTION 16 – Leaves of Absence

- (a) Leave of absence without pay, without loss of seniority or other benefits, shall be granted to employees who are absent for the purpose of attending Union functions such as conventions, conferences, schools, seminars. Such leaves of absence shall be restricted to no more than two (2) employees at any one time.

When an employee attends Union functions such as conferences, conventions, schools, seminars, etc., the Employer agrees to pay the employees involved for all wages and benefits as the employee would have received had he been at work, and the Union agrees to reimburse the Employer upon receipt of billing.

The Union agrees to notify the Employer at least four (4) weeks prior to said functions.

- (b) All employees shall be entitled to a one (1) year Leave of Absence for any reason. The Employer and the Union agree that employees granted leave under this provision shall neither gain nor lose seniority. Employees may return from such leave early, however, they must give the General Manager one (1) month's notice of their early return.
- (c) Funeral and Bereavement Leave: In the event of death of a brother, sister, mother-in-law, father-in-law, sister-in-law, brother-in-law, grandmother, grandfather, grandchild, or any relative living in the household of the employee, the Employer will grant up to one (1) week's paid compassionate Leave of Absence. This leave will be granted to attend the funeral and such time off must be taken at the time of bereavement. In the event of death of spouse, father, mother, stepfather, stepmother, or child, the employee shall be entitled to one (1) week's leave of absence with pay at the time of bereavement. It is understood that in the case of a part-time employee, the compensation shall be at the average hours worked during the preceding four (4) weeks.

Should an employee's entitlement to the one (1) week's leave of absence with pay occur while the employee is on vacation, the balance of the employee's week of vacation will be re-scheduled at some later date as mutually agreed between the employee and the Employer.

An employee's day off will not be altered to circumvent funeral leave benefit. This leave may be extended, with the agreement of the Employer, by using vacation time, or requested time off.

Upon written request by the employee, the Employer shall, in writing, grant leave of absence without pay additional to the period granted with pay up to a maximum of two (2) weeks.

- (d) Leave of Absence: Full-time employees shall be entitled to a two (2) month unpaid leave of absence once every three (3) years. Employees requesting a leave of absence must apply in writing to the Employer at least three (3) months in advance of any such leave.

If two (2) or more employees request the same time off, seniority shall apply. It is further understood that such leaves of absence will not be granted for the purpose of taking other employment, except with the express permission of the Employer.

- (e) Maternity Leave: As per employment standards.
- (f) Parenting Leave: An employee who does not take maternity leave, or upon the adoption of a preschool age child or children, shall be entitled to an unpaid Leave of Absence of up to five (5) days at the time of birth or adoption of their child.
- (g) Take-A-Break Leave of Absence: After working a total of one thousand and forty (1,040) hours, employees are entitled to apply for a Take-A-Break (TAB) leave of absence up to a maximum of forty (40) days per year (but not to exceed eight [8] calendar weeks in duration), subject to the following conditions:

1. Applications for such leaves must be in writing and are subject to the approval of the Department Manager and the General Manager. Applications will be made at least one (1) month prior to the start of the requested leave.
2. Requests for Take-A-Break leave of absence will be granted to all employees subject to operational requirements and provided there is another employee in the store who is capable of doing the work required without additional training.
3. While an employee is on leave as described in this section, and as a result of the leave the employee's benefit coverage lapses, the employee shall have the option of maintaining their benefits. In this case, the employee shall bear all costs and premiums charged in maintaining the benefits.
4. Scheduled vacation time shall take precedence over the granting of Take-A-Break leave of absence.
5. It is agreed that employees may take single or multiple day Take-A-Break leave (i.e., less than one [1] week in length) provided the cumulative total days where a Take-A- Break leave is taken does not exceed forty (40) calendar days per calendar year. It is understood that each day of take-A-Break leave per week reduces the basic work week by one (1) day.

6. Where the Take-A-Break leave requested is five (5) days or more in length (or four [4] days if taken in conjunction with a statutory holiday), the vacation entitlement of the employee in question shall be used prior to the Take-A-Break leave being used.

(h) Compassionate Care Leave: An employee will be granted time off from work without pay, to a maximum of twenty-eight (28) weeks, to provide care for a family member that has a serious medical condition with a significant risk of death within twenty-six (26) weeks. In this section family member is defined as a spouse, child or parent, including a child or parent of the spouse. The Employer may, at any time up to and including fifteen (15) days after the return to work, require the employee to provide a certificate issued by a physician confirming the illness.

Request for such leave shall be made to the General Manager.

(i) Education Leave: Employees with two (2) years or more of continuous service with the Co- operative shall be entitled to an unpaid educational leave of absence for the length of the course, to a maximum of one (1) year without gain or loss of seniority as of the time the employee leaves. The following terms and conditions shall apply to such leaves:

1. One (1) employee at any one time shall be eligible for educational leave.
2. Written application for the leave shall be subject to approval from the General Manager. Notification of the person going on leave shall be provided to the store, Union and employee involved.
3. Seniority shall be the determining factor in scheduling the leave.
4. Such leave will be granted on a one-time only basis per employee.
5. The employee must be attending an accredited educational institution. The parties reserve the right to discuss and resolve the application of this in any particular case.
6. While on leave, the employee shall not take employment with any competitor. Violation of this provision may result in termination.
7. It is understood a person on leave could be offered minimal part-time work with the Co- operative without seniority or rights to such work, for the duration of the leave.
8. The period of time will not count towards time worked for vacation entitlement.

9. One (1) month's notice of return to work must be given to the co-operative unless a return date has been established prior to leaving.
10. During the period of such leave, the employee will be allowed to pay their pre-leave benefit status for MSP, EHB, HEP and Life Insurance in advance by quarterly installments.

The parties desire to have this new provision complied with in spirit and intent. Any abuse, violations or conflicts arising from it will be discussed between the parties before any action is taken.

- (j) Domestic Violence Leave: Employees eligible for leaves under Section 16, subsections (b), (d), and (g), may use said leaves as required for Domestic Violence leave. The Co- operative will work with employees to ensure on a good faith basis to provide such unpaid leave as required. Leaves used under this section are in addition to the amounts provided for in the B.C. Employment Standards Act.

SECTION 17 – Health and Safety

A joint Health and Safety Committee to be established consisting minimally of:

- two (2) employees selected by the Union
- the manager
- and a fourth (4th) person appointed by the Board

The manager may, from time to time, appoint another employee to act on their behalf.

Such committee is to meet as is required by the provincial Occupational Health and Safety regulations for discussion of health and safety matters. The meetings shall be directed to matters concerning the correction of unsafe conditions and practices and the maintenance of co-operative interest in the safety of the work force. Meeting time is to be paid at the straight time rate.

Health and Safety Committee Training:

(1) Each member of a joint committee is entitled to an annual educational leave totaling 8 hours, or a longer period if prescribed by provincial regulation, for the purposes of attending occupational health and safety training courses conducted by or with the approval of the Board.

(2) A member of the joint committee may designate another member as being entitled to take all or part of the member's educational leave.

(3) The employer must provide the educational leave under this section without loss of pay or other benefits and must pay for, or reimburse the worker for, the costs of the training course and the reasonable costs of attending the course.

SECTION 18 – Joint Labour Management Committee

The Co-operative agrees to establish a Joint Labour Management Committee. A minimum of one (1) shop steward shall sit on the committee as appointed by the Union.

The purpose of these meetings is to promote a harmonious relationship between management and the employees at store level.

SECTION 19 – Expiration and Renewal

The parties agree to amend dates in section 19 of the agreement to reflect a four (4) year deal. This Agreement shall be for the period from and including June 1, 2021 to and including May 31, 2024 and from year to year thereafter, subject to the right of either party to the Agreement, within four (4) months immediately preceding May 31, 2024 in writing, effective or any subsequent anniversary thereafter to:

- (a) terminate this Agreement, in writing, effective May 31, 2024 or any subsequent anniversary thereof,
- (b) require the other party to this Agreement, in writing, to commence collective bargaining to conclude a revision or renewal of this Agreement.

Should either party give notice pursuant to (b) above, this Agreement shall thereafter continue in full force and effect and neither party shall make any change in the terms of the said Agreement, or increase or decrease the rate of pay of any employee for whom collective bargaining is being conducted, or alter any other term or condition of employment until:

- (1) The Union gives notice of strike in compliance with the Labour Relations Code of British Columbia, or
- (2) The Employer gives notice of lockout in compliance with the Labour Relations Code of British Columbia.

The operation of Section 50(2) and (3) of the Labour Relations Code of British Columbia is hereby excluded.

In the event no agreement is reached, any dispute may be referred to Arbitration.

Minimum Wage Adjustment: Wage rate will be adjusted to a minimum of $0.10 above minimum wage, should the Provincial minimum wage increase over the scale rates, over the duration of the contract.

Retro Pay: All wage increases will be paid retroactive to expiry of the previous agreement, May 31, 2021, to date of ratification and will be paid to all active employees within sixty (60) calendar days of ratification of the agreement.
